President Invokes Taft-Hartley in Dock Strike

Opening Set For Museum

Officials Predict Record Attendance

Palm Springs Desert Museum will open its doors for the 1959-60 season at 10 a.m., Friday, Oct. 16, anticipating an even more active year than the 1958-59 all-time record of more than 60,000 people.

This will mark the beginning of the museum's 21st year as an incorporated non-profit institution, and its second year of operation in the new building at 135 East Tahquitz Drive.

DURING THE summer months, the museum staff has completely reorganized and refurbished the exhibit hall; the number of displays has been almost doubled over last year and includes several additions of an unusual character.

An innovation this year is the showing of at least two "traveling" exhibits—exhibits assembled by another museum and booked for temporary showing around the country.

THE FIRST OF these traveling exhibits will be installed just before the Desert Museum's opening date and will be on view until Nov. 15. Entitled "Arts of Southern California: Prehistoric and Indigenous Indian Art," the exhibit was assembled by the Long Beach Museum of Art, and has been shown in only eight or nine select museums across the country during the last year.

It consists of a collection of about 120 items, representing what experts in the field consider the finest examples of workmanship of the Southern California Indians.

THIS, TOGETHER with other special exhibits during the season, will have preview showings for museum members and special guests before the opening to the general public.

The museum's other regular activities will get under way in November. The Tuesday evening illustrated science lectures will again be under the auspices of the Adult Education program of the High School. Friday and Saturday evening events will be of the "live" type as presented last year, with a number of outstanding speakers already scheduled to appear.

Hikes and field trips will be conducted rather differently from those of past seasons. Terry Poiwell will again lead the energetic hikers up canyons and across ridges; but organized groups under the guidance of other leaders will make excursions for the express purpose of learning something of the geology or of the flora and fauna of particular areas.

Ron Pidot, a science teacher at the High School, is the first special leader to be engaged for these instructive field trips; others will be named from time to time.

Saund, Cranston Set at Demo Fete

Congressman D. S. Saund and State Controller Alan Cranston will share the speaker's stand at a Dollars for Democrats Victory Dinner at the Chi Chi Starlite Room Friday night.

An estimated 500 Democrats and Republicans are expected to turn out for the dinner, scheduled for 7:30 p.m., according to Virginia Strahan and Clifford Dean, co-chairmen of the county's Dollars for Democrats campaign.

City Planners To Consider Zoning Changes

City Planning Commissioners will meet Wednesday to consider three applications for zoning changes and architectural approval of at least two new residential subdivisions.

Wednesday's commission meeting opens at 3 p.m. with public hearing on A. J. de Christoper's application to conduct outdoor dining at his restaurant at 775 North Palm Canyon Drive.

ZONING CHANGE applications up for commission action:

—Application of John G. Munnell for a change of zone from R-1a and watercourse zone districts to C-1a and R-3 zones for property on Section 25 of Palm Valley Colony lands.

This is scheduled for re-hearing because of improper notification of interested parties. The zone change was previously turned down.

—APPLICATION BY Hilda Kovary for a change of zone from R-2 to R-3 for lots 69 and 70 in the John Mel tract, located on the north side of Mel Avenue and the east side of Avenida Palos Verdes.

Desert Slaying Suspects Held

SAN BERNARDINO (UPI) — The district attorney's office today sought indictments against three suspects in the desert slayings of Richard L. Newlin and Patricia Hurley.

A scheduled preliminary hearing for two of the suspects, Sandra Grounds and Lawrence Garner, was postponed Monday until next Tuesday.

Hannah Swirls Across Atlantic

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Hurricane Hannah swirls eastward across the Atlantic today, its 105-mile an hour winds no longer a threat to the United States but still a menace to shipping.

State Will Intervene in Controversy

Trustee Criticism Of CAC Report Arouses Governor

By AL LE ANCE

California Gov. Edmund G. Brown yesterday indicated that the state may well intervene in the three-cornered dispute currently embroiling the new College of the Desert.

Governor Brown yesterday told The Desert Sun that he will immediately investigate the junior college site, the California Aeronautics Commission and Hotelman Hank Gogerty's charges against the site.

THE GOVERNOR also indicated that he is "very interested" in charges by the junior college Board of Trustees that the CAB yielded to pressures of "special interests" to produce an unfavorable report on the college site.

An objective observer yesterday handed the governor a thick sheaf of documents that included the original CAC report, the college board's statement attacking the report and an aerial map showing the relationship between the college site and Gogerty's Palm Desert Airport.

"I am very interested in this problem," the governor said. "We have quite a few problems like this and we may make a test case of this issue."

GOVERNOR BROWN was presented with the documents and apprised of the local situation following his meeting at La Quinta yesterday with President Eisenhower.

He turned the papers over to his executive secretary, Frederick G. Dutton, and pledged an immediate investigation following his return to Sacramento.

The governor was particularly concerned with the complaint against the CAC and charges that the college site is within the flight patterns of the airport.

"I CAN'T MAKE any comments right now because I don't know enough about this situation and it appears to be pretty controversial," Brown said. "But I'm certainly going to look into it."

The governor was told that the CAC had ruled against the Odell Ranch college site in Palm Desert in a conclusion based on information that an airport runway intersects the site.

TOKYO (UPI) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev made an inspection tour of factories in Vladivostok Monday, Radio Peiping said today in a Japanese broadcast beamed to Japan.

TRIBAL RITUAL READIED FOR FUNERAL OF JOHN ANDREAS

Indians representing reservations from near and far will gather in Palm Springs Wednesday to pay final respects to John Joseph Andreas, 85, the oldest member of the Agua Caliente Band, who died yesterday after a two-month fight against bronchial pneumonia.

As is the custom of American Indians, when one of their leaders dies, tribes and bands travel from close by and far away to pay a last tribute.

ROSARY WILL be held at 8:15 tonight at Wiefel's and Son Chapel and at 1 p.m. Wednesday, a wake will be held at the Andreas home at the entrance of Palm Canyon, and will continue until an hour or so before the funeral mass.

MODERATE DRINKERS BECOME ALCOHOLICS, SAYS COLLEGE STUDY

DENVER (UPI) — Studies show one out of every eight people who began drinking occasionally or moderately becomes an alcoholic, a University of Illinois scientist said here Monday night.

Dr. Andrew C. Ivy, head of the clinical sciences department at the university, said alcoholism has become the No. 3 public health problem in the United States.

He told the opening session of the five-day American Temperance Society convention that alcoholism poses one of the greatest threats to the nation's survival.

U.S. Rocket Project Lags Due to Funds

BOSTON (UPI) — The United States is developing a rocket at least twice as powerful as those believed used by Russia in its space efforts but the American project is lagging a year behind because of insufficient funds, rocket expert Dr. Wernher von Braun said Monday night.

Von Braun, chief of the Army's rockets and missiles program, told newsmen before addressing a business group that the nation's penny-pinching policies were killing U. S. chances of overtaking Russia in the space race.

"We could catch up if we spend enough money to do it," he said. "We could go faster if we got the funds we asked for. But we get only about 50 per cent."

Von Braun said the rocket under development, called Project Saturn, would have engines capable of developing thrust of 1,500,000 pounds, "about four times greater than our largest intercontinental ballistic missile and about twice as great as the power plants we think the Russians have used in their space program."

Frances Jensen Services Set For Wednesday

CATHEDRAL CITY — Graveside services for Frances Gertrude Jensen, 44, will be held at 2 p. m., Wednesday, at Desert Memorial Park, with Father William Goodrow, pastor of Our Lady of Solitude Church, officiating.

Wiefel and Son Mortuary is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Jensen, who lived at 621 A Street here, died at 3 a. m., Monday, at Riverside, following an illness of one year's duration.

A native of Navarre, Minn., she had resided here for five years.

Survivors include her husband, Henry; three daughters, Jacqueline Burkhardt of Opo Locka, Fla., Sharon Ziegenfuss, Palm Springs, and Susan Jensen, Cathedral City; a sister, Evangeline Dore of Minneapolis, Minn., and two grandchildren.

"COME BACK TO CALIFORNIA," says California Gov. Edmund G. Brown, right, as he bids farewell to President Eisenhower following a 30-minute visit to the presidential retreat at La Quinta yesterday. "I hope you can come back again," the governor told the President, "you'll never find a more beautiful place." The President grinned and replied: "I might come back in about 15 months." Woman Injured By Collision

A Cathedral City woman sustained ankle and back injuries when she was thrown from a car driven by her husband as the vehicle collided with a pickup truck last night at East Ramon Road and Crossley Road.

California Highway Patrolmen in Indio said the woman, Ruth Hayhurst, 44, of 906 Grove Street, received treatment at Desert Hospital. The car was driven by John E. Hayhurst.

Officers identified the truck driver as Kaiser Hartwell, 26, of San Bernardino. Neither Hayhurst nor Hartwell was injured.

RESCUERS FIGHT THROUGH DRIFTS

WESTCLIFFE, Colo. (UPI)—Army rescue units today bulldozed their way through five-foot snow drifts trying to reach a 70-year-old woman marooned on a ranch in the storm-battered West Mountain Valley of Colorado.

Custer County Sheriff Stan De Priest said attempts were made Monday to reach Mrs. Geneva Hunt, who lives alone on a ranch 8,500 feet above sea level in the Sangre de Cristo Mountains. But bulldozers were forced to turn back.

THE SHERIFF said no word has been received from the woman since early last week when one of the worst early season snowstorms in Colorado history hit the area. De Priest said Mrs. Hunt was "a spry little woman" and accustomed to taking care of herself. He added that he thought she probably had plenty of food to last.

MAMIE'S LEADING QUIET LIFE WHILE IKE'S IN VILLAGE

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Mamie Eisenhower is leading a quiet, routine life while President Eisenhower vacations in California.

There are no engagements on her social calendar until Friday, when Mexican President Adolfo Lopez Mateos and his official party arrive here for a visit.

Last week, shortly after the President flew to Palm Springs for an eight-day rest, Mrs. Eisenhower entertained about 450 women attending a meeting of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Ike Eyeing Like Move in Steel Strike

Fact-Finding Team Ordered to Report to President Oct. 10

President Eisenhower today invoked the Taft-Hartley Act to force an end to the dock strike which, he charged, will "imperil the national health and safety" if it is permitted to continue.

The President this morning signed an executive order creating a board of inquiry to report by Oct. 10 on the labor dispute which has snarled millions of dollars in shipping from New York to California since last Wednesday.

PRESIDENTIAL PRESS Secretary James Hagerty said this is the opening step in application of the Taft-Hartley Act to a labor-management dispute. It could lead to an injunction which would halt the dock tie-up for at least 60 days.

At the same time, the President indicated, through Hagerty, that his patience is wearing thin over the steel strike, which he now regards as a "trial of strength" between two groups.

"The President asked me to say that this is not the collective bargaining which is an instrument of an instrument open to free people in major economic disputes," Hagerty told a press conference this morning.

HE SAID THE President views the apparent breakdown of steel negotiations as something that "seems to be getting down more and more to a trial of strength between two groups, with the American people the greatest loser."

"I might add that the President has no intention of having the American people as the greatest loser," Hagerty added.

Hagerty, who noted that the President is particularly concerned with the supply of foodstuffs to such major ports as New York, reported that President Eisenhower signed his executive order at 8:10 a.m. today, following a telephone talk with Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell in Washington.

THE PRESIDENT appointed Guy Farmer, former National Labor Relations Board chairman, as chairman of the board of inquiry and named Chicago attorney John F. Sember and George Frankenthaler, former New York State Supreme Court Justice, as board members.

The President has two options following submission of the report.

Many Not Paid

Professional Men Ignore Licenses

Village professional men are apparently carrying through their threat against Palm Springs new business license increase as City Clerk Mary Gene Ringwald yesterday revealed that 37 professional men here are delinquent and 20 more only partially paid on their 1959-60 business licenses.

The clerk released the figures at yesterday's noon luncheon meeting of the City Council at the Chi Chi restaurant.

MANY PROFESSIONAL men were reported to have declared when the law was passed hating the business license fees, that they "would not pay" the amount, which in some cases were more than 300 per cent.

William Mason, local electrical contractor, appeared before the council to ask for relief from what he termed "excessive license fees."

He said that although he was not saying it as a threat, he believed that local professional men would fight the ordinance in the court, unless some "readjustment" could be made.

BUT THE COUNCIL appeared to be even more strongly in favor of holding up its business license ordinance as it was written. Mayor Bogert pointed out, however, that there was one area that he believed should be corrected, that of private registered nurses.

"We stand a good chance of just plain not having nurses in Palm Springs because of the $100 license fee," said the Mayor, "and I personally would be in favor of imposing no fee."

But City Attorney Jerry Bunker said that it would be far better to make even a slight charge and amounts from $5 to $15 were mentioned. Action is expected to be taken on this matter Oct. 14.

Building to Set New Record

By ELMER C. WALZER
UPI Financial Editor

NEW YORK (UPI) — Construction in 1960 is going to set a new high record, according to the annual forecast of Architectural Forum.

If it does, it will be the 16th annual record in a row. And that in itself is something of a record. The rise over 1959 is expected to be small—1.5 per cent in current dollars, and 0.5 per cent in 1947-49 prices.

IT'S A SMALL gain because

COCKTAIL HOUR
At the Chi Chi

1959 was so big. The 1959 construction figure is placed at $34.9 billion, a jump of 11.3 per cent over 1958. That's three and a half times the average increase of the past few years and more than twice the most optimistic prediction.

The Forum expects 1960 building to reach $35.7 billion, with private building at $39.3 billion, up almost 2 per cent and public at $16.4 billion, up only 0.5 per cent.

THE 1960 RISE is slated to come without benefit of a rise in housing.

Forum estimates that privately-financed one and two family starts probably will fall 11 per cent from 1,112,000 units in 1959 to 990,000 in 1960.

However, it points out, expenditures for housing will fall less—about 6 per cent—because of a big carryover of work begun in 1959 and the trend toward larger, higher quality, and more expensive homes.

THE GIANT SIZE of the 1959 building figure was caused in large part by government use of construction as an anti-recession tool, it is pointed out.

Hence, the Forum suggests the years 1959 and 1960 be taken together for appraising the trend.

Now that the industry is back to a more normal basis and no longer an anti-recession tool, the Forum wonders if it were worth while to use this industry as a pump primer.

"IN A MAJOR recession," says the Forum, "federal pump-priming with construction dollars may benefit the economy and the industry alike, but in a minor recession like that of 1957-58 it may do both more economic harm than good."

When prohibition was repealed more than 25 years ago, there were 130 distilleries licensed to produce whisky in the U.S. Now, there are only 26.

Who created the idea that went into the message that sent the reader out of the house to buy?

The chances are that one of the country's 3,000 skilled advertising agencies thought up, wrote, designed and placed the newspaper ad that sent this lady out to buy.

Last year agencies and other advertisers in the U.S. and Canada placed over $10 billion worth of advertising in newspapers, magazines, radio, television and outdoor advertising. The largest amount, by far, was invested in daily newspapers.

In a relatively few years agencies have helped to make thousands of products household words. And, from the start, agencies and newspapers have worked closely to bring news of products and services to you.

Most agencies, like the clients they serve so well, recognize the daily newspaper as the most effective advertising medium to introduce and maintain any product on the market.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK is proclaimed in Palm Springs this week by Mayor Frank Bogert as John Sanborn, left, Elks Lodge fire prevention chairman, looks on. The Mayor's proclamation sets aside the week of Oct. 4 through 10 as Fire Prevention Week, launching an area wide fire safety campaign by the Elks Lodge, Palm Springs Safety Council and the city fire department. FIRE PREVENTION OBSERVANCE SET

Mayor Frank Bogert has proclaimed the week of Oct. 4 through 10 as Fire Prevention Week in Palm Springs, in conjunction with national observance of Fire Prevention Week.

Noting that Fire Prevention Week "is a measure of vital interest to all of us," Mayor Bogert urged "all our citizens to join in contributing their best efforts in support of this worthy project."

The mayor's proclamation coincided with a fire prevention program now being jointly administered by the Palm Springs Safety Council, the fire department and the Elks Lodge.

John Sanborn, Elks Fire Prevention chairman, is heading up the special campaign, in conjunction with Jim Harris, fire department engineer, and Safety Council President Don Miller.

Court Battle To 'Clear Air' Regardless

County Counsel Tells Plans to Fight Lawsuit

County Counsel Ray T. Sullivan told The Desert Sun that he plans to go to court against hotelman Hank Gogerty even if the Palm Desert Airport decides to drop his lawsuit against the junior college Board of Trustees.

Sullivan said he would welcome the opportunity "to clear the air" of controversy that has embroiled the Odell Ranch College site in Palm Desert since it was selected by junior college board members.

THE COUNTY counsel also attacked Gogerty's Superior Court complaint for "declaratory relief" as "a half-hearted lawsuit" that shows the plaintiff "doesn't really expect relief."

Gogerty last week filed a Superior Court complaint seeking a restraining order to halt acquisition of the college site until it receives approval from the California Aeronautics Commission.

He also asked the court to rule the site, located near his Desert Air Hotel airport, is unsafe for school development.

SULLIVAN SAID he is "fully prepared" to answer the complaint, and is confident of his case, although he has not been served with a court summons.

by the fact-finding board — he can ask the attorney general to seek an injunction in Federal court to halt the strike for 60 days, or he can decide that the report does not have sufficient fact to justify an injunction.

During this 60-day period, labor and management must return to the bargaining table. The NLRB then has 15 days following in which to set an election wherein labor can accept or reject management's offers.

HAGERTY SAID the President breakfasted and returned to Eldorado golf course with "his usual foursome" after signing the executive order.

The President yesterday entertained California Gov. Edmund G. Brown for a 30-minute "social call" at the Presidential retreat.

SURROUNDED BY NEWSMEN, California Gov. Edmund G. Brown momentarily doffs his glasses as he answers a barrage of questions on his half-hour visit with President Eisenhower yesterday. The governor told newsmen that he discussed some California problems—"and pleasures"—with the president. (Desert Sun Photo).

He was also informed that the Board of Trustees and County Counsel Ray Sullivan attacked the report after consultations with CAC officials indicated the report was based on allegedly erroneous facts.

HE WAS APPRISED of Sullivan's recent visit to the CAC and the county counsel's statement that the CAC admittedly received all its information from Gogerty and that CAC Director Clyde Barnett admitted that there apparently were errors in the report.

The key factor in charges against the CAC is the statement that Gogerty's airport runway intersects the site. The aerial photo given to Brown shows the college site in relationship to the runways.

Dutton said he would immediately press the investigation for the governor and will report back here "as soon as possible."

council and to Mason that Palm Springs license fees were "different" and were used for revenue, rather than for purely administrative as they are in other cities.

Although the council will have a chance to act on the professional men's fees, if there is any changes at all they may increase them by making the fee apply to each as an individual, and not take firms into consideration.

Whatever is decided, the professional people indicated they would like to have a meeting with the council. Next Monday they are expected to appear at the council conference session.

Secret for Happiness

BOMBAY, India — When we first saw him from our balcony at the Taj Mahal hotel along Bombay's ocean front, he was sitting along the breakwater which protects the city from the constant ravages of the Arabian sea.

He appeared removed and indifferent to the hectic crowds around him, as he sat motionless gazing in the direction of the open sea. We were shooting pictures from the balcony that morning and in several hourly intervals we could see him still sitting motionless and gazing into space.

WE WENT DOWN to the street for a closer look. He was better dressed than we suspected. He appeared as a man of culture even before he spoke. He looked important and distinguished. He intrigued us to the point where we felt an urge to speak.

As we approached him he turned and his eyes smiled. "How do you do," he said, "you are an American." The tone of his voice left no question that he was sure of his deduction.

WHEN HE LEARNED we were a correspondent on a fact-finding tour, he inquired as to what kind of fact-finding we were seeking. We told him that our main interest was to determine the prospects of peace over crisis around the world.

"Sit down, please," he smiled, "I would enjoy talking with you. I save my words until I get a signal that a person genuinely wants to hear what an old man of 100 years has to say."

WE WERE LITERALLY stunned at his age. . . . for his appearance was hardly that of a man of 70. We were now all ears. "I am probably the oldest person I know with the strength to come out every day in this heat . . . which proves that I am as healthy in body as well as mind," he said.

"It was more than 50 years ago that I passed the age you are now going through," he noted, "which means that I have had 50 years more to prove or disprove my ideas for a happy life. At age 100 I feel like the man who looks at the world from miles above the earth and distinguishes both the actual shape, distance and direction without earthly distortion."

"FROM THAT HIGH up any pilot will tell you he derives a sense of inward peace. It has taken me the best part of 100 years to learn that inward peace is the secret of happiness."

"Inward peace comes from enjoying being alone with yourself. You can be alone even in the most crowded square, simply by looking up into the endless sky. God exists, by whatever name, somewhere in space. Genuine peace is only in the direction of limitless space . . . sea, desert, sky, mountains, valleys . . . wherever there is space for the mind to roam . . . without humans to interfere and distort natural truths."

"THE HARDEST work I do each day is in trying to keep my health. Happiness is not possible without good health. What you put into your mouth determines your degree of happiness, for it is that you either create health and happiness, or destroy it."

"It is needless to say that I gave up smoking, drinking, overeating more than 50 years ago. I gave up the golf club, tennis club, or other popular forms of so-called exercise. As a physician I am convinced that moderate exercise, such as walking, gardening, breathing deeply, swimming, are all that a normal body needs to keep fit."

"ANY FORM OF active athletic exercise after age 40 is unhealthy and dangerous. So is eating heavily, even though what you eat is nutritious. It is just as bad to overeat fruit as it is to overeat meat, eggs or anything else."

We asked him for his recipe for happiness and his eyes lit up and a faint smile crossed his kindly face.

"MY RECIPE FOR happiness is my own," he said. "Each person must discover his own, for humans are as different physically and mentally as every natural organism that moves on earth or sea."

"My recipe for happiness is self control . . . an effort at moderation . . . honesty of purpose more than honesty of performance. I try to adjust to my environment as much as possible without degrading myself to popular habits and fads."

"I LOOK FOR THE good in others . . . I never gossip about friend or foe . . . I keep an open mind for natural truths, not newspaper ads and commercials . . . I avoid arguments by being agreeable and pliable, not contrary . . . I try to live the moment and the day, first . . . I am tolerant even of those who abuse me or even impose on me."

"I am not bothered when people disagree with me, or offend by any insults or criticisms . . . I allow few things to disturb my peace of mind, however urgent and serious they appear at the moment."

"I CONSTANTLY improve my patience toward everyone and everything . . . I try to live my life in a way that feels comfortable to me, without imposing either my words or actions on anyone . . . I live inwardly more than outwardly. You get less involved that way."

A car drove up to the curb and he motioned the driver to wait. "Be sure to look me up on your next visit to Bombay . . . I'll be around," he said.

Why K. Was Not Accepted

WASHINGTON, D.C. — "A God, a God their reverence ruled! And bade between their shores to be The unplumb'd salt estranging the sea." —Matthew Arnold.

With Khrushchev gone, there comes to mind an old cartoon of a North woods couple, captioned:

"Well, the vacation folks have left us, and now we can drop our accents."

IT IS A RELIEF to drop the assumed accent of welcome, cordiality and tolerance toward the Big Red. He should be finding much more congeniality in China where they practice the loathsome togetherness which is the essence of communism.

Boiling down the K-formula to its irreducible point, we find this snuggle-up philosophy to be what's left when all the dogma and dialectics are removed. The idea that all men are bed-fellows turns out to be something that this Christian, capitalist country cannot accept.

IF I MAKE BOLD to talk religion, it's because I am just out of a meeting where Bishop Fulton Sheen gave us some of his reasons why there's no living with communism. At the very heart of Christianity is the top value set upon the individual. To most Americans individualism carries the rights of privacy, ownership, free thinking and action up to the point of public safety, and the pursuit of "happiness" as each man cares to define it.

Americans and other free peoples have reached these conclusions, if I am right, through the wisdom of ancestors and from experience in life. A man who has stood beside his father's grave, given his daughter in marriage, prayed for courage in the hour of danger, felt the withering loneliness of a lost or unrequited love — such a man (which is to say, every man) has had testimony of the intimate, sacred things of life. They are alien to collectivism of any sort.

IS NOT THIS the residual reason why Mr. Khrushchev remained a stranger among us? Most public visitors to this country are embraced as friends. One of the great national jubilees came in 1924 when the Marquis de Lafayette returned by invitation of Congress to receive a farewell tour, $200,000 and a grant of land.

All the famous foreigners whom Grover Whelan used to greet, and who enjoyed the ticker tape showers up Broadway, were given the sort of heart-felt welcome which the country never warmed up to in the presence of Mr. K. Politeness, attentiveness, agreement on the need for peace were accorded him, but friendship was withheld.

THE REASONS, I am saying, are more fundamental than is generally noted. Big K offended our sense of a sad but irrevocable truth — the loneliness of man. This is inseparable from his individualism. It is the price we bring in our hands for personal dignity, a high price for an invaluable gift.

When Khrushchev preaches the communism togetherness, or when our own equalizers preach Share America, they are exhorting us, in effect, to self-destruction. Throw down the protections over property and privacy, discard the national self-interest by disarmament, redistribute the wealth by inflationary spending, and we will certainly have done what the Big Red wants — we will have destroyed the USA.

BISHOP SHEEN cast for a small group of interviewers a very bright ray of hope. He reminded us that the world's first Communist government, which briefly ruled France under Robespierre after the Revolution, came apart because of its inhumanity and moral corruption. We cannot ever, in any decency, make a coexistence pact with communism.

We must continue to oppose it in Cold War and, if it comes to that, by taking arms. But this is no reason to despair. The laws of nature and the record of history are that the Russian people, like the French before them, will eventually recover their country.

'We Must Create Conditions for Friendship'

This Side Of The Sun

By Phat

The guys on whom I vent my wrath— They stop their cars Right in your path.

It has been a long time since I have expressed my opinion of inconsiderate motorists but with the seasons coming on and the streets filling up with cars and the sidewalks with pedestrians, this might be a good time to gripe again.

THE CITY has painted nice, bright, broad, easy-to-see white lines across Andreas Road on the east side of Palm Canyon Drive, clearly outlining the path for pedestrians.

But too many motorists still think it is no man's land. They barge right up to the curb line, stopping squarely across the pedestrian walk and sit there, waiting for a chance to sneak into the Drive.

And the pedestrians either have to wait or walk around them. And with these long cars, that's some walk.

THE WHITE LINES are new. When the street was blank with no line of demarcation you sometimes couldn't blame the drivers. But with the new lines, there's no excuse.

I always liked the story of the man who found an automobile blocking the cross walk.

Instead of walking around the car, he climbed right over the hood.

I HOPE THE BOYS over at KDES don't get a copy of this new record about which Hollywood disc jockeys are going goofy.

Now, I like the Dodgers and hope they win but this new song "Charge!" which is spitting the air waves may turn me back to being a Braves fan.

The tune is a nothing and the words, I think, are less.

Horace Heidt, former Village hotel owner, recorded it and now that the World Series is on (it still is at this writing) "Charge!" is super-charging the air.

Geed, Heidt is going to be red-faced if the Sox win the series.

RACEHORSE HARRISON owns a little dog called "Lucky" and everywhere Racehorse goes, Lucky goes.

But the other day Racehorse had to go where Lucky had been. Seems Lucky was lonesome and wanted a pal. He came home the other night, carefully carrying a live pigeon which he had captured.

"He didn't want to hurt it, just wanted it to play with him," said Racehorse.

But, being aware of the possibilities, he locked Lucky up and carried the pigeon a safe way away and released it.

FROM EVERY PART of the nation, I am getting clippings of newspapers carrying front page stories about President Eisenhower and his visit to La Quinta. And, outside of Las Vegas papers which didn't mention Palm Springs, the name of this city is making headlines from coast to coast.

He is having a great time here and Palm Springs is getting publicity valued way up in the millions — and not laying out a cent for it.

We're really making hey-hey while the sun shines.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Feathering Nests

HOLLYWOOD—Deborah Kerr and Peter Viertel are making long-range plans to feather their nests 'way beyond next July, when their divorces become final. Deborah made a stiff settlement on her ex, Tony Bartley; Peter parted with another big hunk when he and Virginia called it a day; but they hope to start stashing it in the bank again starting in '60 via their own production company.

They have signed a "package" deal with Warner Bros. and W. Somerset Maugham. Deborah will star in Maugham's "Cakes and Ale," Peter will write the screenplay, and all will participate in the profits.

IN ADDITION to shooting "Cakes" abroad, in order to make it as typically British as Fuller's angel cake and Robertson's marmalade, the couple will stay overseas for the two years permitted by Internal Revenue for a 25 per cent savings on their joint tax return.

While everyone else in Hollywood is asking how John Huston can possibly make a movie based on the life of Sigmund Freud, producer-director Hugo Haas is rushing into another picture on the "Father of Modern Psychology" at MGM. The one Hugo is heaven-hoing in an attempt to beat Huston to the punch is titled "The Freudian Touch."

Seesaw'd from a Sunset Strip barstool: "I once started to write a drinking song but I never got past the first two bars!"

PATSY KELLY is back in business in a big way, after too many years away from The Big Time, and you'll be seeing plenty of the comedienne on TV and movie screens this season.

Patsy pulls right out of "Please Don't Eat the Daisies" with Doris Day and David Niven into "The Crowded Sky." Latter being about a plane crash between Washington, D.C., and Los Angeles. Patsy plays the part of a talent agent who lands a young "Method" actor, Troy Donahue, his first Hollywood contract. Yep, Troy will be on that Hollywood-bound plane too.

WHITMAN PUBLISHING Co. is stacking the country's book-racks with Mrs. Phil Regan's first kiddie book, "A Child's Ten Commandments." I asked Josephine's permission to airmail the autographed copy she sent me to Nikita Khrushchev, c/o The Kremlin, Moscow, U.S.S.R. I underlined Jo's Eighth Commandment for Mr. K's benefit: "I must always tell the truth because truth makes one strong while lies make one weak."

A producer at MGM who was once befriended by the late Bob Burns is picking up the tab for the attorney fees in connection with the latest "marijuana rap" involving Bob's 21-year-old daughter Barbara. The producer asked that his name be kept secret, even from Barbara.

BRITISH BELLE Shirley Ann Field, whose measurements are 38-23-35, doesn't even know which State the Battle of Antietam was fought in but she's so pretty it doesn't make any difference.

As a result, Sir Larry Olivier ordered a part written into his movie version of "The Entertainer" for Shirley. She'll play a double-crossing chorine who tosses the aging British music-hall comic aside after he furthers her career.

CHANNEL CHATTER — Movie people who weekend away from the terrifically tense Tinseltown grind in Laguna Beach (we call 'em Lagunatics) have been raising Holy Ned with the resort town's city fathers because they're not getting enough rest. And they're not getting enough rest, they claim, because of those early Sunday morning trumpet serenades duetted on the beach by Gardner (Adventures in Paradise) McKay and his brother, writer Hugh McKay.

Dawn Addams, no longer Princess Dawn since her separation from Prince Vittorio Massimo, learned how to tear a London phone book in half for a BBC-TV show.

Snipped about a stuckup starlet set-side at Screen Gems: "Why shouldn't success go to her head? She's got plenty of room there!"

SPIKE JONES, Dick Wesson, Paul Picerni and a flock of other TV entertainers were all set to appear at the Benedictine Monk annual Valerimo Festival but had to bow out at the last minute because of conflicting TV rehearsals.

Guess who came to the rescue of the Fathers at the last minute and rounded up a substitute show headlined by Tony Romano, Bob Hope's favorite accordionist? No, not Hope — Rudolph Friml Jr., an ardent member of Jehovah's Witnesses!

THE WHOLE Person-to-Person gang, headed by Charles Hill, is staying at the Bel-Air Hotel arranging four P-to-Peeks at some of our better-known citizens. Among the celebs from California scheduled to be spied on this season are his ex-Royal Highness, Citizen Mike Romanoff, and the Queen of Sex herself, Mae West, accompanied by a prodigious plug for her new book, "Goodness Had Nothing to Do With It."

Romanoff's pitch will be for the movie based on his life, to be shot at 20th-Fox, for which Cole Porter provided the title: "Instant Prince."

FRONT AND center, Ralph Edwards: Red Skelton wants to know whose "This Is Your Life" was cancelled by you because he didn't have enough friends!

Scandal Cast Aside: The star of a new adventure series saved his marriage by phoning his leading lady while his wife listened in — to tell the doll that henceforth their love scenes will end at the wind-up of each day of shooting on their soundstage!

I DON'T KNOW about you but I'm sick of that TV commercial for a German sports car — and WHAT huckstering genius dreamed up the pitch about the car being "made of the same sturdy quality as the German tanks of World War II?"

Joined by Joe E. Lewis: "Alcohol is the greatest preservative in the world for everything except secrets!"

New TV Scandals May Be Unveiled

NEW YORK — "The Quiz Show Scandals of 1959" — opening before congressional investigators in Washington — may produce shocking headlines "because some people pretty high up have been blabbing for three weeks..."

Jack Barry, Charles Van Doren and Dan Enright hope they won't be made to squirm at the "truth sessions" ... The $64,000 Question and $64,000 Challenge shows will be scrupulously looked into ... Perjury threats will be dangled over witnesses' heads ... TV Producers - and - directors William Todman, Steve Carlin and Mert Koplin have already been consulted by the Quiz quizzers but can't reveal what they revealed.

Contestants who were front page happy when winning have now pleaded, "No pictures, please!" ... "The inquiry'll last until March," one expert predicts ... Prospective witnesses are busy with their psychiatrists—and one wants to take his psychiatrist along.

Jack Carter, who gets his best jokes from cab drivers, told at the Latin Quarter of the Texans who bought some Renaults and Rembrandts, then said, "Well, that takes care of the Christmas cards. Let's buy the presents."

Debbie Reynolds, we hear, went alone to the Majestic Ballroom on B'way, announced her name as "Mary Francis," and asked for a job as a hostess. At first unrecognized, she worked from 11:30 to closing, dancing with many customers, and refusing salary. Solution: She plans to play a dance hall hostess—and was researching.

Entertainment in the Sun

Theresa Brewer Starts Sahara Duting Oct. 7

LAS VEGAS, Nev. — Hunch setters will have to roll into the Sahara here Oct. 7 when Theresa Brewer opens a 7-day engagement that marks her 7th outing and the 5th birthday of the hotel.

The string of 7s appropriately underscores the natural the Sahara has become since 1952 when it swung open its doors and immediately established itself as the hotel that made Las Vegas a leading entertainment center in the world.

Backing the diminutive ball and tetter, who also is scheduled for a Steve Allen TV shot Oct. 4, will be Comic Dave Barry, the Sahara Dancers in the original Shaw-Hitchcock production of "Cinderella" and Louis Basil and his orchestra.

Scheduled for the Casbah theatre during the period are headliner Mel Tormé, Jack Ross and the Dick Lane quartet, Ginny Freer and the Gallions, Tomma Jean Trio and Sando Deems.

Other stars appearing along the trip include: Desert Inn, Eddie Fisher; Dunes, Minsky Revue; El Rancho Vegas, Myron Cohen and La Nue Eve; Flamingo, William Bendix; New Frontier, Holly in Japan; Riviera, Red Buttons and Georgia Gibbs; Sands, Sammy Davis through Oct. 5, followed by Bobby Darin; Stardust, Lido de Paris; Thunderbird, Ecstasy on Ice; Tropicana, Celeste Adam and Dick Shawn.

Journalism Fete To Give Awards

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Annual Journalism awards of the Greater Los Angeles Press Club will be presented at a banquet observing the 20th Annual National Newspaper Week Oct. 25.

The $1,000 first prize in the program will be presented by its donor, Harry Karl, president of KRL Shoe Stores, to the writer of the best local news story of 1959.

Club President Humphrey Owen will introduce award winners after their announcement by committee Chairman Howard Seelye.

In the United States and Canada combined, people spend over $1,500,000,000 a year to get their daily and Sunday newspapers.

OASIS HOTEL SET FOR 35TH SEASON

The Oasis Hotel, second oldest hotel here — which was completely rebuilt into an ultra modern hotel eight years ago — has swung wide its hospitable doors for its 35th season.

The hotel, located on eight acres, was first built in 1924 by Mrs. Austin McManus on land which had been part of her father's orchards. Still incorporated in the gardens of The Oasis are some of these original plantings as well as several towering cottonwood trees which add to the hotel's picturesque charm.

IT IS NOW OWNED and operated by Western Hotels Inc., whose famed chain stretches from Anchorage, Alaska, to Guatemala, and from Denver to Hawaii (The Hawaiian Village). Nearing completion are three new hotels, the Alameda in Mexico City, the Anchorage Westward in Alaska, and one as yet unnamed in Vancouver, B. C., but which includes a unique marine entrance for private yacht owners.

Manager of the Oasis is Roland Richter, who first assumed that position last year. Richter was previously with the chain for a year at The Cascade in Wenatchee, and for 15 years with The Olympic in Seattle.

MR. AND MRS. Richter spent the summer months travelling throughout the West telling both the Palm Springs and Oasis story. They are now in residence at 240

MOVIE INDUSTRY MAY CENSOR OWN FILM PRODUCTS NOW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — The movie industry is considering adult classification of films because of a wave of criticism. President Eric Johnston, of the Motion Picture of America disclosed today.

Johnston told a news conference that although he personally was opposed to any form of censorship, the association was discussing the matter of classification with "Catholic, Protestant, Jewish, women's and other groups."

"The movie code has not changed so much," he said. "It is the subject of material in books and other creative works."

Johnston said that the same people who complained a few years ago that movies were not adult enough were now complaining that they were too adult.

Dick Nowell, the popular matre'd who made many friends here last season, has also returned to his post. Nowell spent the summer in England and Switzerland taking additional special hotel training.

OUTSTANDING FOOD is the order of the day at Hotel Oasis, for the hotel has as its resident chef Reinhold Keller, who is executive chef of all 33 Western Hotels.

Back at her desk as reservation manager is Mrs. Olive Kimble who has been with the hotel for four years. Returned too is Miss Dorothy Beardsall, executive secretary who has been with Oasis for three years.

THE DINING ROOM of the hotel as well as the outdoor terrace dining area are both open to the public, with breakfast served from 8 to 10 daily, lunch from 12 to 2:30 and dinner from 6 to 9. Guests of the hotel are also able to enjoy poolside dining service. The intimate cocktail lounge is also open to the public from 11 in the morning until 2 a. m.

The hotel is one of the few in this area which has direct teletype connections with all major cities as well as interconnection reservation service between all Western Hotels.

FIRST GUEST OF the season was Miss Helen Stanley of the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles, while furthest off early season visitors are Mr. and Mrs. Luis E. Orduz of Bogota, Columbia, South America.

Other opener arrivals include frequent visitors Mr. and Mrs. Raymond G. Dexter, Encino; Mr. and Mrs. Philip Stockhauser, La Jolla; Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Donaldson, Costa Mesa; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gannon, Berkeley; Mr. and Mrs. Lora Stritenbuger, Hillsborough; San Francisco's Mr. and Mrs. Nino Giraud and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ferrando.

Also Mr. and Mrs. C. Bert Marshall and Mr. and Mrs. Rigby Hamond, of San Antonio, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Mead, San Diego; Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Soli, Everett, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Anthony K. India Gives Red China 'Firm Note'

NEW DELHI (UPI) — India has notified Red China that there will be no negotiations for a settlement of their border dispute while Communist troops remained on Indian soil.

In a firmly-worded note delivered Saturday in Peiping, Premier Jawaharlal Nehru also advised the Reds that they will have to cease their "threats and intimidation" if they want border talks with India.

Darkened Highways Hazardous

Highway Patrol Issues Warning To Motorists

Return to standard time is adding an additional hazard for motorists driving home from work, Capt. Lloyd W. Watson of the Inland Area office of the California Highway Patrol noted today.

"All during the summer, the family breadwinner generally had broad daylight in which to combat homeward bound traffic," Capt. Watson said. "But with the change from daylight saving time to standard time, dusk is beginning to fall as most workers leave for home."

"Dusk is a dangerous driving period, as every experienced driver knows, but sometimes motorists fail to adjust to the decreasing light. The result, much too often, is a late arrival for dinner — if the motorist is lucky enough to get home at all."

Capt. Watson pointed out that state law prohibits the use of parking lights as driving lights, and said the Highway Patrol will be particularly alert to violations of this provision of the vehicle code.

"Physical and mental alertness, courtesy, and patience all play a large role in the ability to reach home safely and in good humor," he observed. "They become increasingly important as driving conditions become more difficult and dangerous."

Guard Shoots Convict Trying To Scale Wall

FLORENCE, Ariz. (UPI) — A guard shot and killed a convict yesterday during a breakout attempt at the state prison.

Warden Frank Eymann identified the victim as Paul Francis Hendricks, 25, who was serving a term of 5 to 10 years for manslaughter from Pima County in Arizona.

Two other inmates attempting with Hendricks to escape surrendered without trouble when the guard fired a rifle bullet into Hendricks' back.

Eymann did not identify the guard.

He said the men were scaling the north wall at 2:50 a.m. when a guard spotted them. The guard fired a warning shot, then killed Hendricks when the convict failed to stop.

PV Manager Off On Fishing Trip

By AL NEHL

Palm Valley

V. J. Smith and wife, Helen, (brother of Palm Valley manager C. G. Smith) after having stayed here for the past month helping to get the park in good shape, left Monday for their usual winter fishing grounds in Guaymas, Mexico. They will return next May.

The Vern Mills, with their new 48 foot 10 wide, are the envy of all the park residents. Their daughter, Verna, recently visited them, accompanied by husband Don and little daughter.

JIM AND LORENA Mills stopped in to see their old friends and take a peek at the new Recreation Hall. They pronounced it "lovely." They are expecting a new grandchild in October so won't be moving back here until early November.

Ed Richardson and family have returned from summering at Lake Arrowhead. Their friends, the Dr. Lippman Wolfs, will be in around Oct. 15.

DOROTHY HARMON returned from Lake Tahoe recently with her two trailers. She is a rock-hound and plans to take the small trailer on her rock-hunting trips. Barney and Betty Lantz of the "Royal Lancers" are back for the season, as well as Pat Fanning and Bob and Lois Chapman with daughter, Beverly.

Among newcomers are the Jack Tookes, Bud Mortons, Richard Bebos, Roy Loomis, the Carnetts, Penny O'Herron, Troy McCoys, William Welchs and Bettie Bowden.

BELL AND JACK Douglas are awaiting their new 48 foot 10 wide.

Everyone is having a happy time and it has been noticed that since the pool area has been supplied with music originating in the Recreation Hall — many stroll up there to enjoy it in the cool of the evening.

Rancho Vista

Larry and Evelyn Smith, owners and managers of the Rancho Vista Trailer Park three miles north of Indio on Highway 99, have had a very busy summer.

The big project was the construction of a large swimming pool. Rearranging and improving several spaces for new long 10-wide trailers took more time and money.

A new access road in front of their park will make it much easier to enter and leave their park, and they anticipate a considerably increased demand for trailer space. To take care of this new business they are planning at least a 50 per cent expansion in the number of spaces by next season.

Indian Wells

"Business has never been better," according to the J. R. Whitfields who manage the Indian Wells Trailer Park for owner Ray Ryan. Every space has been rented for the full 1959-60 season and applications are coming in daily from Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Utah and other parts of the United States.

According to the Whitfields, if their park was twice as large, it would still be filled in 30 days. The John Brodies are the owners of a new 50 foot 10-wide Roll-away Mobile home. Five other new ten wide are expected at Indian Wells during the month of October.

Recession Predicted by Union Chiefs

Like's Administration Lashed by Labor At Senate Session

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The AFL-CIO has predicted that another recession will occur in the next few years "if the current drift of national economic policies and developments is not halted quickly."

The prediction was made before a special Senate committee which opened an extensive investigation into why the United States has heavy unemployment in an era of general prosperity.

The labor organization charged that policies adopted by the Eisenhower administration have "slowed down the advance of the economy" and caused heavy unemployment in a period of general prosperity.

But the U.S. Chamber of Commerce said "A certain amount of unemployment is normal and inevitable." It said the government could not possibly eliminate all unemployment "nor is it feasible to attempt to do so."

The special Senate committee was created in the closing days of the recent congressional session to study unemployment.

Andrew J. Biemiller, AFL-CIO legislative director, told the committee that administration economic policies were "specifically designed to curtail economic growth and the creation of new job opportunities."

The policies represent a threat that the current upturn from the 1958 recession may be soon undermined and the basis for a new recession established," he said.

Biemiller said the fact that almost three and a half million workers, or about five out of every hundred, were unemployed in August, "is one of the many sad commentaries on these times of government complacency."

However, Walter D. Fackler, spokesman for the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, warned that "in seeking remedies to one set of problems, we must always be careful that we do not create other, perhaps worse, problems." He said government programs often "turn out to be the worst possible long-term ventures."

He said the committee should try to distinguish between unemployment which is an "unnecessary evil" and joblessness which is normal in a free economy.

Dodgers 6-1 Pick To Capture Series From Failing Sox.

Gil Hodges Homers for Third Win

ChiSox Offense Lackluster as L. A. Nets Third Straight

By LEO H. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor
LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Chicago's go-go White Sox, who haven't been going far enough around the bases, faced sudden death in the World Series today as a long-disappointing kid from Brooklyn went out in an attempt to administer the coup de grace.

Twenty-three-year-old Sandy Koufax, a fast-balling left hander, will attempt to compensate for a $25,000 bonus and a mere 28-27 record over the past five years by trying to close out the series for the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Los Angeles now rules as a 6-1 choice to take the series and as a 13-10 pick in today's game.

BUT THE WHITE SOX, undaunted by the fact that they trailed three games to one, promised to unchain the runners they have been stranding on the bases with frustrating frequency and pull themselves back into contention behind the fast ball hurling of big Bob Shaw.

"We've still got a helluva chance," asserted Chisox Manager Al Lopez, faced in addition with a second World Series mauling on the heels of his four straight losses to the Giants when he was managing Cleveland.

IGNORING THE fact that he now is 1-7 in World Series play, he added:

"We haven't done anything the easy way all year and we can't expect it now."

Yet, without unshackling those baserunners, his task looked virtually hopeless. For in two record attendance games in the Coliseum, the White Sox have stranded a killing total of 20 base runners.

NINE MEN LEFT on base contributed to their ruin Monday as they fell, 5 to 4, before an eighth-inning home run by veteran Gil Hodges — adding to the saga of those old Brooklyn heroes who went West with the franchise two years ago.

BADGERS PICKED IN GAME OF WEEK

By OSCAR FRALEY
LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Frayley's follies and the weekend football "winners" — while mixing bunts and punts at the World Series.

THE EAST
Syracuse over Navy — They have Luis Aparicio's speed.
Army over Penn State — The blue plate special.
Princeton over Penn—As handsome as Don Drysdale.

THE MIDWEST
Northwestern over Minnesota — Chuck Dresen knows what he'll do with a series check.
Illinois over Ohio State — You might say it's taken out of his hands.

THE WEST
Notre Dame over California — This smog is really something.
Air Force over Idaho — It's a cross between pea soup and a sand-storm.
Washington over Stanford — But all the red eyes in the press box can't be blamed on it.

THE SOUTHWEST
Oklahoma over Texas — Al Lopez received numerous calls about what was wrong with his club.
Florida over Rice — One guy asked him to pay for the call and Al refused.

FRANKIE CARBO TRIAL UNDER WAY

NEW YORK (UPI) — Underworld boxing czar Frankie Carbo's trial on charges of operating as an unlicensed fight manager resumes in Manhattan's general sessions court today.

The trial opened Monday in what Carbo and his attorney, Abraham Brodsky, thought would be a routine appearance. But before the day was out, the dapper Carbo wound up in jail with a million dollar federal tax suit to think about and Brodsky wound up in a heated debate with judge John S. Mullen.

BRODSKY SOUGHT to gain a postponement because he is scheduled to take part in a murder trial in Brooklyn on Oct. 19. He told Mullen he was under the impression that Monday's appearance was only to set a date for Carbo's trial.

However, Mullen ordered the trial to begin and an effort was made to pick a jury. Brodsky refused to participate and Carbo, named in a 10-count indictment charging conspiracy, acting as an unlicensed matchmaker and employing others as fronts, likewise refused when offered the opportunity to question talesmen.

JUDGE MULLEN then ordered Carbo jailed, presumably for the duration of the trial. He had been free on $100,000 bail.

Carbo got an earlier jolt when he was served with a civil suit by two U.S. marshals for $730,719 in back taxes, plus interest and penalties to add up to a million. He allegedly owes taxes for the years 1944-46 and 1949-52.

Susalla Enters Hesperia Golf Play Thursday

HESPERIA — Eddie Susalla, Indian Wells Country Club pro, has entered the $20,000 Hesperia Open that starts Thursday in the high desert community in a four day event.

Susalla will face a star-studded field of 125 linksmen in the "Lucky Dollar Tournament," so nicknamed because of the $1 admission fee, lowest in major western golf annals.

Other top entries in the high desert sports classic, besides Eddie, are: Ken Venturi, Frank Stranahan, Jerry Barber, Gene Littler, Billy Casper, Jr., Bob Rosburg, and the '57 and '58 Hesperia Open winners, Billy Maxwell and John McMullin.

The tournament, called by the "pros" as one of the most popular in the circuit, has installed two innovations besides the $1 admission price, a daily sports fashion show, and hourly bulletins on player standings to keep the spectators abreast of the play.

JVs Eye Tough San Jacinto After 40-0 Win

Palm Springs High School's JV footballers, eyeing an important game at San Jacinto Thursday, last week ripped the Perris JVs by 40-0.

This week's game, a practice game against the highly-rated San Jacinto JVs, will begin at 6 p.m. on the San Jac field.

In the rout of Perris, backs Ben Wheeler, Chuck Baker, and Henry Heuck paced the offensive thrust with linemen Gil Flores and Dave Simon turning in stand-out performances on the line.

Hesperia Lures Stars
HESPERIA (UPI) — Home run king Ralph Kiner and hurler Bob Lemon will be among the participants of Wednesday's 18-hole Pro-Sponsor Celebrity golf meet at the Hesperia Country Club.

Don Fleeman vs. Buddy Turman; Miami Beach, Fla., Randy Sandy vs. Jimmy Beecham; Erie, Pa., Jim Pettaway vs. Ray Powell.

THIS WEEK'S BOXING schedule includes:
Monday — Santa Monica, Calif., Art Aragon vs. Peter Schmidt; Tijuana, Mex., Alfredo Zuanu vs. Gus Fuller.

Tuesday — Sacramento, Calif., Joey Lopes vs. Hilario Morales; Stockton, Calif., Fernando Sota vs. Benny Casing; Dallas, Tex.,

WEDNESDAY — LOUISVILLE, Ky., Rudell Stitch vs. Ralph Dupas (TV).

Thursday — Los Angeles, Kid Irapuato vs. Pilon Cervantes; Friday — Philadelphia, Von Clay vs. Kid (Sixto) Rodriguez (TV); Havana, Chico Morales vs. Douglas Villant.

Saturday — Los Angeles, Reybon Stubbs vs. Pat Lowry.

Gomez May Play In San Jac Tilt

Bill Smith Lost to Indians After Shoulder Separation

Tony Gomez, whose passing and running ability has set the pace against foes of the Palm Springs High School football team, will be back in the play Friday night, having recovered from a back sprain suffered in the game against Perris last week.

The 145-pound backfield man, who has been taking it easy in practice, is expected to get back his passing arm in time to toss a few in the practice game against San Jacinto Friday.

BUT THE INDIANS did suffer a sharp setback in the loss of Bill Smith for Friday's game. Smith suffered a shoulder separation in the third quarter of last Friday's game, but it didn't bother him much until after the game was over.

Coach Clare Ballagh said that he was taking Smith out of the Indian lineup Friday on orders from the team doctor, Dr. William Aikin.

To date, Smith and Gomez have been the "doers" on the Indian eleven, and the team will miss any of them.

BALLAGH SAID that the Indian team has now dropped from a maximum of 30 men to 23 today. A couple have left the team, one was transferred to JVs and injuries have taken most of the rest out.

Jim Garland, who sprained his ankle, is expected to be back in play Friday, but Ballagh has decided not to push the boys in the practice sessions, but to reserve them for league games.

THOMPSON SETS ONE MORE TRY FOR NEW RECORD

BONNEVILLE SALT FLATS, Utah (UPI) — A discouraged Mckey Thompson, plagued by bad weather and bad luck on the salt flats here, planned what will probably be one last try early this morning for the international land speed record.

Thompson's Challenger I went into a skid at dawn Monday in what was to have been a record run and hit a course marker. His one-run time was a disappointing 235 m.p.h., far below even the American land speed record he set here last month of 352 m.p.h.

"The track is the worst I've seen in nine years of racing here," the 31-year-old hotrodder said.

"It's too rough and too slippery."

Whether or not he breaks the 394 m.p.h. mark that has held unchanged since 1947, Thompson's attempt today will probably be the last because of the poor condition of the flats and because of other commitments.

Northwestern Cuts LSU First Place Margin

NEW YORK (UPI) — Northwestern, victor over Iowa in one of Saturday's top football games, cut Louisiana State's first-place margin to six points today in United Press International's major college ratings.

The wave of weekend upsets jolted Army, Clemson, Notre Dame and Ohio State out of the top 10. Georgia Tech, Tennessee and Purdue moved into the select group.

LOUISIANA STATE, rolling behind a defense which has allowed only three points in three games, received 23 first-place votes and a total of 317 points from the 35 coaches who rate the teams for UPI. Northwestern, runnerup for the second straight week, closed in on L. S. U. when it received six first-place votes and 311 points.

Southern California advanced from sixth to third and Texas moved from eighth to fourth. Georgia Tech advanced from 12th to fifth, Tennessee swept from 13th to sixth and Purdue moved from 19th to eighth. Mississippi was seventh. Wisconsin remained ninth and Iowa slipped from third to 10th.

THE RATINGS with first place votes and won-lost records in parentheses:

Team	Points
1. LSU, 23 (3-0)	317
2. Northwestern, 6 (2-0)	311
3. Southern Calif., 4 (3-0)	216
4. Texas, 2 (3-0)	183
5. Georgia Tech (3-0)	166
6. Tennessee (2-0)	131
7. Mississippi (3-0)	129
8. Purdue (1-0-1)	127
9. Wisconsin (2-0)	97
10. Iowa (1-1)	53

11. Syracuse, 40; 12. Penn State, 35; 13. South Carolina, 26; 14. Oklahoma, 15; Auburn, 11; 16 (tie), Michigan State and Southern Methodist, 10 each; 18. Florida, 6; 19. Air Force Academy, 5; 20 (tie), Duke and Oregon, 4 each.

Others — Arkansas 3; Texas Tech and Washington, 2 each; Missouri 1.

Does The Hair Grow After Death?
Scientists differ somewhat on this subject, but the weight of authority favors the view that hair, including the beard, ceases to grow at death.

What Does U.S.S. Mean In Ship Names?
U.S.S. preceding the names of vessels are the abbreviation of UNITED STATES SHIPS. It is sometimes erroneously thought that the second "S" stands for steamship or steamer but these letters were used before the advent of steam propelled vessels.

Taxpayers Not Paying for Elvis Movie-Army

FRANKFURT, Germany (UPI) — The U.S. Army has denied a congressman's charges that Elvis Presley's new movie would cost the taxpayers money.

Rep. George H. Mahon (D-Tex.) complained that the government was helping pay for the Paramount-Hal Wallis movie, "G.I. Blues", because a tank company and soldier extras from the 3rd Armored Division were used in some shots.

Presley, a Jeep driver for the division, has not appeared before the cameras yet. He will film his sections of the movie in Hollywood after his discharge from service next year.

A spokesman for the 3rd Armored division denied Mahon's charges. He said the soldiers who acted as extras took leave due them and were paid by Paramount. The Army would be reimbursed for other expenses involving the military, he said.

The Riverside County Fair and National Date Festival at Indio is one of 77 California fairs which receives revenue from a tax on pari-mutuel wagering at race tracks.

IMPERIAL MOTORS DISPLAYS 1960'S

Imperial Motors of Palm Springs and Coachella Valley is now introducing a revolutionary new line of cars and trucks for 1960.

Outstanding are the two all-new lines of roomy, comfortable cars with top roadability and ease of handling—the Matador and the Polara.

THESE LOW-MEDIUM priced cars will be offered in 11 sedan, hardtop, station wagon and convertible models featuring a combination of the most important engineering and styling changes that Dodge has ever made in a single model year, according to Kay Oleson, manager of Imperial Motors.

And also making its debut is the 1960 Dodge Dart, the first completely new full line of automobiles to enter the low-priced field since 1928.

The smaller Dodge Dart, designed to fit the family pocket-book as well as the family garage, will be offered in 20 sedan, station wagon, hardtop and convertible models.

AN ENTIRELY new series of medium and high-tonnage gasoline and diesel trucks, featuring revolutionary swing-out fenders which ensure the fastest and most convenient engine accessibility in the industry, highlights the 1960 line of Dodge trucks.

Details of the new "P" Series units were revealed here today by Oleson who said the 1960 models are designed and engineered specifically for truck owners seeking greater economy of operation, added cab comfort and convenience and increased payload capacity.

"Dodge is the first of the 'low-price three' to enter the diesel picture. Appealing to the high-tonnage truck market, will be new styling and design, Servo-Swing fenders, increased gross vehicle weights up to 53,000 pounds and increased gross combination weights up to 76,000 pounds.

A TOTAL OF 140 basic models will be offered in the new line which includes conventional, cab-forward, 4 wheel-drive, forward-control, school bus chassis, and tandem units. Eleven gasoline engines will be available with a horsepower range from 113 to 228 in addition to four diesel engines with a horsepower range from 175 to 220.

In another classification is the Town Wagon, ideal as a carrier of personnel or cargo. It can carry up to eight passengers in its three seats. With its two rear seats removed, the Town Wagon provides 155 feet of load space—more than 50 per cent greater than that offered by conventional station wagons.

HALF-TON AND three-quarter-ton Power Wagons are being offered for the first time with a Sweetline pickup body ideal for use by farmers, oilfield crews, construction firms and others engaged in off-highway carrying operations over rugged terrain.

Dodge is introducing two new station wagon body styles for 1960. The Polara station wagon features hardtop styling, with an uninterrupted viewing expanse from windshield to rear door pillar. The Matador features the same outstanding roof styling and has a full center door pillar.

The new "Unibody" construction of the 1960 cars is the greatest step forward in automobile building since Dodge introduced all steel bodies.

THE BODY AND frame are integrated into a single unified structure by this new method of construction. The "Unibody" gives Dodge more room on the inside, greater structural strength and provides an island of comfort and quiet for the driver and passengers.

The 1960 models of the low-priced field will be available in three series—the lowest-priced Seneca, the Pioneer and the top-series Phoenix.

The roomy Dodge Dart, styled in classic lines, features its own distinctive interior and exterior.

Loose Gravel Said Hazard

Indio Men Sentenced For Thefts

Convicted Early In August on Vehicle Charge

INDIO—The two Indio men who helped run a gigantic vehicle theft ring which had its base of operations in this city were sentenced Monday in Pomona Superior Court to one to five years in prison on state charges of grand theft.

The two, John P. Fullilove, 43, of 45-901 Salton St., and Fred H. Gustaf, 30, of 43-124 Smoke Tree, had pleaded guilty at a preliminary hearing last month to the charges which involved thousands stolen from construction firms, most of them in the Los Angeles area.

EACH FACES sentencing on one charge of grand theft. The men were convicted early in August in Federal Court in San Diego of "transporting stolen vehicles in foreign commerce." They will be sentenced on these charges at a later date.

THEY HAD BEEN accused of stealing the equipment and taking it over the international border into Mexico where they sold it, using fake bills of sale.

Officers who arrested the pair early on the morning of May 6 said the ring had been operating over a period of several months. They took skidloaders, tractors and similar construction equipment. Much of the stolen equipment has already been recovered.

Ford Maintains Falcon Will Be 'Lowest Priced'

DETROIT (UPI)—Ford Motor Co. has announced its Falcon would be the lowest priced six-passenger car in the industry.

Ford officials said the suggested list price of $1,746 for the two-door Falcon was $64 under the recently announced price for Chevrolet's entry in the compact car field, the Corvair.

Suggested list price of the four-door model is $1,803.

Ford President Henry Ford II said the two-door Falcon price $305 less than the 1960 Fairlane, lowest-priced six-passenger auto of the standard size American cars.

He emphasized that suggested factory list prices did not include distribution and delivery charges, license fees or federal, state or local taxes.

JUSTICE DEPT. AIDS GOYA'S NUDE IN COURT ACTION

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Justice Department has come to the aid of a famous nude.

It declared in U. S. District Court that the Post Office Department was wrong in banning postal cards bearing reproductions of Francisco Goya's famous portrait, "The Naked Maja," from the mails.

United Artists Corp. mailed 2,000 of the cards to theater owners, critics and press agents last July to publicize a movie about the life of the 18th Century Spanish artists.

The post office impounded the cards and United Artists went to court. Justice Department lawyers were assigned to prepare the government's case.

They said in a formal answer filed today that the cards were not obscene. The post office was expected to release them for mailing soon.

"We just decided it was perhaps not a very good case," a Justice Department spokesman said.

'Great Things' Seen by Top Red Scientists

LONDON (UPI)—Soviet scientists are dropping hints of great things to come in the wake of the spectacular flight of Lunik III.

Western observers viewed their statements with cautious respect. Moscow Radio called out its corps of space commentators and scientists and paraded them before the microphones to tell Russia and the world about the latest space success. To a man they made confident predictions of more Buck Rogers-like space projects in the near future.

ASTRONAUTICAL commentator Felix Yurevich told his Radio Moscow audience that "in the most immediate future we can expect very great discoveries in the study of the moon."

Scientist Nikolai O. Barabasev put it this way: "The launching of the third cosmic rocket proves that we have entered the period of planned mastery of cosmic space and flights to the moon and the nearer planets."

SOME WESTERN observers were more precise.

"They must be thinking very seriously about putting a man into orbit around the earth," said Kenneth Rutland, vice-chairman of Britain's interplanetary society.

"The present moon flight is clearly part of a well-defined program of lunar interplanetary exploration," he said.

YURIYEVICH SAID "the launching of a rocket to fly around the moon has naturally created conditions for a new stage in mastering the moon—the creation of an artificial moon satellite."

Privileged Talks Defined

BY STATE BAR ASSN.

Under the law what you as a client tell your lawyer in confidence he may tell no one else without your consent.

Nor can a judge order him or his professional employees (like secretaries) to reveal such communications in court.

Why such a privilege? CHIEFLY, TO DO justice; it encourages clients to tell their lawyers what they have to know to help and to advise them fully: things about their family, business, and private affairs their hopes, fears, and ambitions.

No lawyer may speak of certain things, even after a client dies. For a client may well have to give his lawyer details which, if revealed, might harm those he most wanted to protect.

Yet, in some very rare cases to help carry out the client's desires after death, a lawyer may have to reveal a confidence, under certain safe-guards to uphold his client's purposes.

WHAT ARE CONFIDENTIAL communications?

Anything a client tells his lawyer when he seeks advice about his personal, business, or legal affairs—talks and letters, photographs, charts, and other documents and records.

Confidential communications belong to you as the client, not to your lawyer. If you break the confidence, a lawyer may also have to talk, for the communication is no longer confidential. You may break a confidence by testifying about it or by having unauthorized persons hear or see what was communicated.

AN ORDINARY eavesdropper may testify in court about anything he overheard.

Electronic eavesdropping (bugging) is still an unsettled problem in the law of evidence, differing from state to state.

No lawyer may keep quiet about a crime or fraud a client has told him he plans to do.

BUT AFTERWARDS, an accused person may talk freely to his lawyer. Even if guilty he has a right to have his side of the story presented to the court as it may effect his punishment. A person in trouble needs to talk to someone without fear that what he says will become public.

Generally speaking, no man or wife, for example, may testify about their confidential talks without the other's consent, unless they oppose each other in a lawsuit such as a divorce action.

CERTAIN OTHER people such as physicians and clergymen may receive privileged communications.

As a rule, no physician may speak about things he learned while treating a patient without his consent. The patient should have a free mind to tell his doctor many things.

THIS PRIVILEGE may not always hold in some criminal and personal injury trials, nor does it hold always after a patient dies. Again, as a rule, a clergyman may not report confessions without the confessor's consent.

Washington Press Entertained During Presidential Visit to The Desert

H. H. RIDDER, head of the Ridder newspaper chain which owns the Long Beach Press Telegram, receives his Honorary Membership card in Desert Press Club from another Honorary member Presidential secretary James Hagerty, at the Press Club party for Washington press which was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Ridder. (Anderson Photo).

Knutsons' Parents Feted on Golden Anniversary

When Art and Gil Knutson, of the Knutson Realty Company in Cathedral City, were in Canada this summer they helped their parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Knutson of Cloverdale, B.C., celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary. The Senior Knutsons, who spend their winters in Palm Springs, received numerous telegrams of congratulations including one from John G. Diefenbaker, Prime Minister and Secretary of State for External Affairs; W. A. C. Bennett, Premier of British Columbia; A. C. DesBrisay, administrator of the Province of B.C.; Donald Gordon, president of the Canadian National Railways; and from the members of Division 796 Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. Knutson is a retired railroad engineer and was the engineer on the train when King George and Queen Elizabeth visited Canada.

Washington press ... here on the Presidential junket ... are finding this one of their better assignments ... not much work ... and lots of play ... as Palm Springs has gone all out to entertain them and give them pleasant memories of the desert ... Eddie Davidson started it off with a cocktail party that filled the lounge of the Ocotillo which is headquarters for the press ... Largest of the parties was the one which Herman H. Ridder (of the Ridder newspaper chain which owns the Long Beach Press Telegram) hosted for the Desert Press Club ... This party took over Thunderbird ... and entertained 165 at cocktails and a beautiful Santos buffet ... with Bobby Ramos and his orchestra coming over from Biltmore to play ...

Special event at this party ... was the presentation of an honorary membership card in Desert Press Club to Ridder ... who received the card from another honorary member ... and guest of honor at the party ... Jim Hagerty ...

Mrs. Hagerty ... who is enjoying her first visit to the desert ... was given a Palm Springs hat ... a Janie creation ... which she fell in love with and wore at evening ...

Auntie Pearl McManus ... who was such a hospitable hostess to visiting press during the last Eisenhower visit ... and who will entertain them at the Tennis Club tomorrow ... was at the Thunderbird party ... So was Zaddie Bunker ... our flying great grandmother ... the Charles Farrells, Kity and Charles ... Francis Crocker, Hero Samsons, George Beebe and Arlene Cox ... Elsinore Machris ... Press Club Founder ... Bob Taliaferro ... The President's secretary Ann C. Whitman, Hagerty's secretary Mary Caffrey ... Col. William Draper ... the jet pilot ... Merriam Smith of United Press (this column is "Backstairs at the White House") ... the Ward Risvolds of the Desert Sun ...

Charlotte and C. C. Hutchens, the Bill Iversons, Russ Wades ... Earl Cordreys, Sadye Hall, Cliff Brown ... the newlywed Ted Grouyas, Harry Smiths ... Jan King with Jack Sutherland of U.S. News and World Report and Marvin Arrowsmith of Associated Press ... Charles Mohr of Time and Life ... Don Klotzbuecher, Marj Pohl, Gladys Stryker, B. J. Sanchez ... the George Ringwalds, Kenneth Brots, Fred Weiberts, Fred Weigels ... Jack Gels ... Jack Nelsons ... Joe Glastons and dozens of others.

Press Club president Norman Lothius expressed the appreciation of the Press Club to Hank and Bonnie Ridder who hosted the party ...

The following night ... La Quinta was the mecca for a lot of cars bearing Press stickers or "PP" license plates ... as Warner Gilmore and his attractive wife entertained for Washington press ... Incidentally ... Warner did the impossible ... getting the hotel in spick and span shape and open almost overnight ... It looked beautiful for the party ...

The Hagertys were there ... but he had to leave early to have dinner with the President who barbecued steaks for a group which included his golfing cronies ... Bob McCulloch, Johnny Dawson, Jimmy Hines ... Governor Pat Brown who flew down after the Dodge game to pay his respects to the President ... made an appearance ...

Of special interest was Carroll Righter ... (Everyone reads him ... he writes the astrological column that's so widely syndicated) ... and he was calling everyone by their zodiacal names (I was Aquarius, of course ... but I already knew that ... Dorothy Freund told me years ago) ... The buffet was a masterpiece ... with huge red, white and blue bouquet in the center of an array of delectables ...

It was a busy weekend around town too ... Ed Rothbart got in from Chicago Friday and he and Edna were Friday night dining at The Dunes ... The Greg Bautzers were there too ... with Doug Whitney ... (Greg's calling Dana "Mamacita" these days) ... and Sinatra was in three nights in a row ... with a group of friends that included Jimmy Van Heusen ... That corner table at The Dunes is a favorite spot when they are in town ...

The Ranch Club had people waiting in line Saturday night ... Harry Brand hosted a dinner group which included the Bill Perlbergs and Joe Halls ... Mary Hurrell was dining with Mary and Alan Jones ... The Alex Novacks with the Lee Berings ...

Among others in the dinner crowd were ... Ralph Wilcox Taylor ... Theresa and Arthur Press and son Bob ... the Joe Eichers, Don Millers and Commander and Mrs. John Bernet ...

The Clyde Johnsons (he's built 81 swimming pools around the desert since March) were housewarming on Saturday afternoon ... and it was a whirling befitting the handsome $100,000 home ... with around 150 invited to attend ... The house is at the end of Indian Wells Road and backs up both Indian Wells and Eldorado Country Clubs ... Guests had been invited to drop in at Indian Wells between three and six and they were transported across the fairway in a fleet of golf carts ... There was a steak dinner afterwards at the clubhouse ...

Daughter Born To Connerlys

Mr. and Mrs. William Connerly of 910 Avenida Evelita are the parents of a six pound, eight ounce daughter, Rhonda Renee, born at the Desert Hospital, October 1 at 9:10 p.m.

Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Roth of 500 East Amado Road and Mr. and Mrs. William Connerly of Long Beach.

The baby's aunt, Miss Jean Orsini, flew out from Chicago to be here at the time of birth and will stay on for a visit at the Roth home.

AT THUNDERBIRD for the Press party, this group is being welcomed by Mrs. H. H. Ridder, on left. Others are, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Farrell, center, and Mrs. Austin McManus, on right. (Desert Sun Photo).

THE HAGERTYS, who were specially honored at the Press party, are shown with Palm Springs flying great-grandmother Zaddie Bunker, center, and Mrs. Russell Wade, on right. The Palm Springs hat being worn by Mrs. Hagerty was a Janie creation by Mrs. Wade.

Cocktail Party Precedes Dinner For Democrats

Mrs. Leo (Frankie) Spitz, who has been abroad to attend United Nations committee meetings, cut short her stay there to return to Palm Springs and participate actively in the Democratic campaign. She will hostess a cocktail party at her Stephens Road home on Friday night, 5:30 to 7 p.m., for the Dollars for Democrats fund. The party will precede the Democratic dinner at the Chi Chi that evening, when Congressman D. S. Sand and Alan Cranston will be speakers.

Cahuilla Chapter D.A.R. to Meet

Cahuilla Chapter D.A.R. will hold its first meeting at the home of Mrs. August Karl Paul, 1620 Indian Trail on October 8th, at 1 p.m.

After a dessert tea, which will be served by the hostess and co-hostess, Mrs. Saul Ruskin, there will be a business session, making plans for the coming year.

Mrs. William E. Froom, Regent, who has just returned from an extended vacation, will be in charge of the meeting.

All members and those interested in Daughters of American Revolution are invited to attend. Call FA 5-2862 for reservations.

Disney to Design Float

Pegleg Theme

Palm Springs entry in the Rose Tournament parade at Pasadena on New Year's Day will be in the world-famous Disney style, for this weekend at his Smoke Tree home, Walt Disney agreed to design the Village's 1961 float. Just recently, Disney has also accepted an appointment in charge of pageantry at the Winter Olympics at Squaw Valley.

By HILLY CRAWFORD

When the buckskin-clad hunter and trapper Pegleg Smith roamed this desert seeking his lost mine . . . he certainly never visioned it as blooming with bright-colored hats.

Picture his amazement if he could materialize in Chi Chi Starlite Room on the afternoon of October 19, when the room will be brilliant with hats of every kind, color and description. Especially if he could know that the luncheon is a kickoff to raise money for a Rose Tournament float that will tell his story.

Theme of this year's Rose Tournament Parade at Pasadena is Tall Tales and True . . . and since Pegleg's story is true and also is one of the tallest to come out of the desert . . . Palm Springs float committee chose it as the theme for their 1960 entry in the world-famous parade. It was a fabulous story even before Harry Oliver got hold of it.

Pegleg, who found and lost a mine and spent his lifetime trying to find it again, is a legendary figure although many moderns are inclined to think him an invention of desert philosopher Harry Oliver.

Certainly it's Harry Oliver who has kept his memory green and served as a press agent for Pegleg, with the same fervor and same skill which has made Oliver himself a legend in his own lifetime, and cast an aura over his Thousand Palms home so that it is known far and wide as Old Fort Oliver, although he built it himself after he came to the desert.

Harry started his press agency for a ghost back in 1933. He had been filing scrapbooks with Pegleg material for years before he began what Randall Henderson labeled his "happy hoax." He went all out on this . . . whittling peglegs out of worm-eaten wood and staining it to antiquity, and then planting the wooden legs out on the desert to stir up renewed interest in the lost mine. (Of this procedure, Harry shrugs and grins and reminds you that the United States Government re-stocks the trout streams).

Ideas spring full-born from Harry's head (miserable-like) and the next one started the Liars Club and the New Years Day trek in search of the lost Pegleg Mine. Out on the desert a monument is rising. Harry started this too. It's growing year by year as each prospector adds 10 stones to the monument, to bring luck.

Each New Years Day Harry and his friends gather at Borrego Valley postoffice and drive six miles toward Coyote Mountain as far as road's end and then by safari to the camp site. There is an 18 foot circle, a growing pile of rocks, and a sign which reads, "Let him who seeks Pegleg Smith's gold add 10 rocks to his monument."

Old mirage salesman Harry (in his Hollywood heyday) he was art director for such motion picture greats as "Seventh Heaven," "Good Earth" and the first "Ben Hur" spectacular, now publisher of the unique 5-page open in the wind Desert Rat Scrap Book, has done well by his Ghost client.

Brother of the famed scout Jedediah Smith, who led the first party overland to California, Thomas L. Smith (later known as Pegleg) was a hunter and trapper and rode with Kit Carson. In a sniping contest with some Indians, he caught a bullet in his leg; gangrene set in; and he hacked away his leg with his hunting knife, with no anesthetic than what came out of a bottle. He carved for himself the wooden stump that gave him his name.

According to one story, he was leading a party into California from Yuma. When the train ran low on water, he climbed one of the three black buttes to scan the countryside for vegetation indicating water. He found what he was looking for and sat down to rest. There on the hilltop he found some round black rocks that caught his fancy, and he took them with him in his pack. This was 20 years before Marconi discovered the nugget that started the Gold Rush and Pegleg, a hunter and trapper, not a miner, didn't recognize gold when he saw it.

It was many years later that he came across the rocks and took them to an assayer in San Francisco to find out that they assayed about $2,000 of gold to the ton. Pegleg set out to re-discover his fortune . . . and spent the rest of his days looking for it.

Many have sought it since, but all they find is the gold of the desert sunshine.

Eva Gabor Weds New York Millionaire

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI)—Actress Eva Gabor honeymooned today with New York millionaire Richard Brown when she married Sunday night less than 24 hours after he proposed to her.

The internationally famous glamour girl and Brown were married by Justice of the Peace Oscar Bryan Sunday night at the Flamingo Hotel. Actor Red Buttons gave the bride away and his wife, Helayne, was the matron of honor. Best man was Flamingo executive George Capri.

The marriage came on such short notice that the Gabor clan—mother Julie and sisters Zsa Zsa and Magda—were unable to attend because of prior commitments in New York.

The 38-year-old actress and the 37-year-old retired textile manufacturer told newsmen they first met more than a year ago through mutual friends and had been dating "off and on" since then.

"We were watching the Betty Grable show at the Flamingo last night," the actress said, "when he said 'will you marry me.' I played hard to get, and said 'yes.'"

The marriage was the fourth for the actress. Brown, who is divorced, has two sons, Richard and Gary.

"This time is for real," said the actress following the brief ceremony.

FIFTY FOUR YEARS of marriage have been happy years for Mr. and Mrs. Warren W. Mills who celebrated another anniversary at their Thousand Palms home recently. (Desert Sun Photo).

Celebrate 54th Anniversary

Two people who made their wedding trip on a picturesque old Mississippi River sternwheeler, have lived to celebrate their 54th wedding anniversary in the jet age.

More than half a century later, out at their Thousand Palms home Mr. and Mrs. Warren W. Mills celebrated the day quietly.

One of their daughters and her husband and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Griffin and Miss Joan Houser of Banning, and a nephew of Mr. Mills, Howard Campbell of Cathedral City, were the only members of the immediate family who were able, because of distance, to call during the day—in addition to friends of the community who had discovered the special date.

This Fall the Mills are also celebrating their fifth anniversary of "desert living." It was in the Fall of 1954 that their new house was completed in the Shangri-La Palms subdivision of Thousand Palms, and they moved in to make this their home. They came to Thousand Palms following a four to five year residence in Van Nuys and Reseda. However, they really call Lodi their California home, as that is where they resided for 17 years before migrating to the Southland.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills, both originally from New Boston, Illinois, were married in Burlington, Iowa, on September 20, 1905. They made the trip for the wedding from Illinois to Burlington on the "Helen Blair," a Mississippi sternwheeler steamboat of that era—a thrilling experience never to be forgotten.

Following their marriage, the Mills went to Toledo, Ohio, where they lived for 30 years. Four children were born to this union—Amy (now Mrs. Griffin), Eloise (now Mrs. Leslie Mundy), Warren B., and Monetta (Mrs. William Fawcett). In the early 1930's they came West to join their daughter, Mrs. Mundy and her husband, in Lodi. They still spend a part of each summer in Lodi visiting and traveling with the Mundys, and with old friends, having only recently returned from this past summer's visit.

All four of their children now reside in California. In addition to Mrs. Griffin in Banning and Mrs. Mundy in Lodi, Mrs. Fawcett and her family make their home in Galt, near Lodi. And, it is now Lieutenant Commander Warren B. Mills, who is at present serving as the Aviation Safety Officer for the Naval Air Service stationed at Oakland Airport. He and his family reside in Hayward during this tour of duty. Only this past summer they returned to the United States from service at the N.A.S. Cubi Point on the Island of Luzon in the Philippine Islands.

The Senior Mills can boast of 11 grandchildren and 7 great grandchildren: Grandson James Houser with his wife and their children, Ronnie, Barbara and Larry, reside in Pioneer, Ohio. The Jack Housers—with their male trio of Jack, Jr., Robert and Roger—make their home in Hayward, California. And Miss Joan Houser resides in Banning with their mother, Mrs. Arthur Griffin and Mr. Griffin.

Tom, Suzanne and Warren Reid and young Kim Fawcett are the Mills' grandchildren who reside with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Fawcett, in Galt. (Tom

Wynne Hammond Resumes Classes

Wynne Hammond, well-known voice coach and singer, has returned to her Palm Springs home, after a busy summer in Idyllwild where she coached young singers from all over California at The Desert Sun School.

Mrs. Hammond, who is noted for her method of teaching interpretation of a song so as to develop stage presence, has a background of experience in appearance all over the United States and, more recently, in Hollywood. She works with all ages, inspiring confidence and stage presence.

is a student at Sacramento Junior College.) Mrs. Fawcett's other son, Richard Reid and his wife and daughter (the Senior Mills' 7th great grandchild), Rhonda Leigh, live in Reno, Nevada.

The Lieutenant Commander's family, in addition to Mrs. Mills, numbers three—Monetta, Patricia, and Warren B., Jr. Warren Mills, Sr., is a retired carpenter. Mrs. Mills has long been an active worker in Welfare and P.T.A. while their children were growing up in Ohio, and in the Garden Club during her Lodi residence. In Thousand Palms she is an active member of the Thousand Palms Democratic Club, the Shangri-La Palms Property Owners Association, and is a fourth-year member of the Coachella Valley Community Concert Association.

Q. and A. Dent.

By Tom Dawson

HOLLYWOOD—More answers for some of your most recent questions.

Q: Can you tell me where I can address a letter to Frank Sinatra, and will he receive it unopened? This is important—Barbara Burbank.

A: Write to Frank Sinatra, c/o Hobart Productions, Hollywood, California. We can't guarantee that he will receive it unopened. You might try marking it "personal" and see what happens, but the odds are about 100 to one it won't work.

Q: Could you tell me some personal facts about Tony Randall?—Sandy B. Oakland

A: Tony was born in Tulsa, Okla., Feb. 26, 1924. He's five foot eleven, and weighs 150, and is married to Florence Mitchell, a non-professional actress.

Q: Just when does Guy Lombardo plan to try to break Donald Campbell's speedboat record of 260.35 m.p.h., as you have mentioned in your column several times recently?

A: Guy already has had a trial run, and with a few "bugs" to be taken out, he will be ready for the attempt.

Q: According to recent news reports, Edm Byrnes was supposed to emcee a Dick Clark show while Dick was away. What happened?—Cynthia (Napa, Calif.)

A: Byrnes' busy schedule of other appearances, combined with fatigue, forced him to cancel the assignment.

GIMMICK—Everyone has a gimmick in Flickerville. For example, George Waggner, a writer of the "Maverick" series and other top productions, has a hard time getting producers and the press to spell his name the way it appears here. (Horse my line operator gets it right).

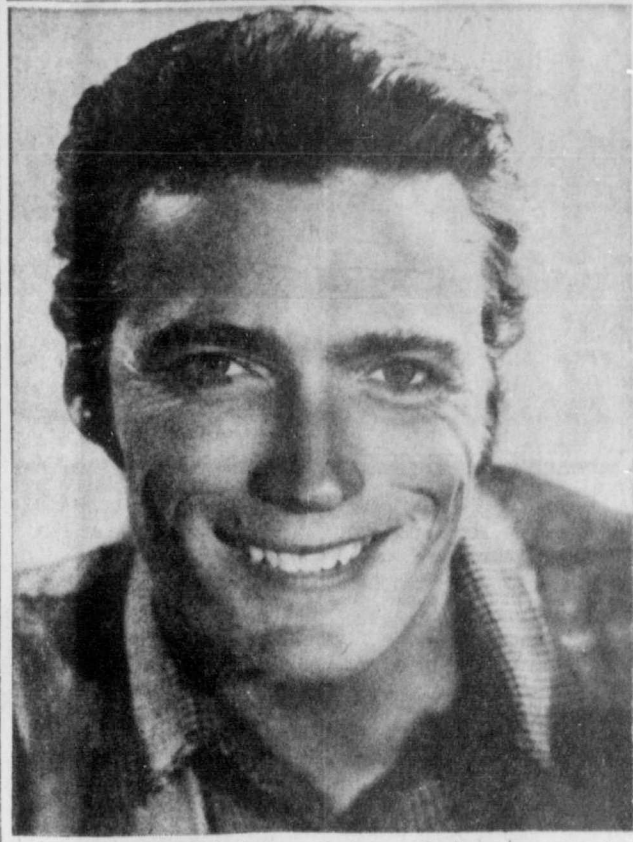

He even went to court to have it legalized and the judge ruled that a person is privileged to put the capitals where he wishes in his own name.

CHEF TROUBLE—Palatable food fare on the West Coast production lots is almost as much a problem as palatable film fare. Witness the case of the Donna Reed show, which is headed by her husband and producer, Tony Owen.

Tony finally hired a top chef who did fine as long as he produced tempting menus on the lot, until he developed delusions of grandeur, and offered to produce the film program for Tony. Anyone looking for a chef with TV background.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY—The wife who belittles her husband never gets anywhere—because he doesn't!

(c) 1959 Universal Radio and TV Features Syndicate

CLINT EASTWOOD'S luck is continuing, as he keeps on garnering roles by what may appear to be press agent brainstorms. He's now appearing as Rowdy Yates on "Rawhide," which appears from 7 to 8 p.m., Fridays, on CBS Television Network.

EASTWOOD LUCK IS CONTINUING

The story of how Clint Eastwood got the role of Rowdy Yates on CBS Television Network's hour-long Western series, "Rawhide," sounds like a press agent's brainstorm—but it's true.

Clint, a handsome, six-foot-four newcomer to movies and television, was at Television City in Hollywood, and stopped by an upstairs office to see Sonia Chernus, network story consultant and a friend of his wife's. While he was in the outer office talking to Sonia, Robert Sparks, CBS Television Network executive producer, came out of the inner office and saw Eastwood.

HE HUSTLED Clint into his own office, and a few minutes later Clint had an appointment to read for the part.

Sparks had, at the moment he came out of his office, been discussing "Rawhide" casting problems with Producer-Director Charles Marquis Warren. Later Clint read for and clinched the role.

But Clint is becoming accustomed to this sort of thing. It was a draft notice that got him into the movies, before his television career.

A UNIVERSAL-International film company was shooting on location at Fort Ord, Calif., where Eastwood was undergoing basic training in the Army after having been called in the draft. An enterprising assistant director spotted the angular youngster on his way to join a chow line and told him "After you're through drop over to the set. I want you to meet our director."

Clint did so, and the director was so impressed with Clint's good looks and the way he read a brief scene that he asked Clint to call him at Universal-International as soon as he got out of the service.

AFTER A VERY slow two years in the Army Clint was discharged and went to Hollywood to call U-I. The studio phone operator, a girl with good ears, heard Clint's heart thud to the floor when she told him the director was no longer with the studio, and took the trouble to hear his story.

She then told him she had a friend in the casting department who might be able to wangle him an interview. It took two weeks to arrange it—two weeks that seemed even longer than the two years in the service. But the casting director was impressed and Clint was given successful, and Clint was signed on a screen test. The test was to a contract.

CLINT WAS BORN in San Francisco on May 31, 1930, and soon thereafter moved with his family (his father, Clint Eastwood, Sr., is an executive with the Container Corporation of America) across the Bay to Oakland, where he attended school.

After graduating from Oakland Technical High School he went to work in Oregon as a lumberjack until he was called by the Army. He had never, until the incident with the director, considered a career as an actor. He had done some little theater work in Oakland, but had never been serious about it.

HE NOW LIVES in Studio City, Calif., with his wife Maggie—a bathing suit model—and two parakeets. He relaxes by swimming—and listening to modern and Dixieland jazz on his hi-fi set.

He credits his enthusiasm for swimming with saving his life. While in the Army he had hitchhiked a ride in a Navy plane from Seattle to Fort Ord when the plane plunged into the sea off Point Reyes, Calif. The pilot had his Mae West, but Eastwood had to swim four miles to shore.

"I'd been instructing soldiers in swimming at camp," he says, "and was in pretty good shape so those four miles weren't so bad. What bothered me was the five-mile hike after I hit the beach before I could find help."

Pied Pipers—NEW YORK UP—Seven young men from the Virgin Islands were found guilty of disorderly conduct because their steel drum band attracted a crowd estimated by police at 2,000 which paraded right behind them through the streets of New York.

But Magistrate Walter H. Gladwin suspended sentence on the defendants, whose ages ranged from 16 to 20, after their lawyer explained they were following the custom of their native land in celebrating the end of the school term.

Isbell's Beauty Cottage Opened

Mrs. Bessie Isbell, a beautician for the past 33 years and a Village for 10 years, today announced the opening of her own shop, "Isbell's Beauty Cottage" at 235 South Palm Canyon Drive.

Mrs. Isbell has two children, Marvin, who owns and operates The Little Fireplace restaurant in Palm Springs and who will open the coffee shop in the new Professional Pharmacy in Rancho Mirage, and Mrs. Marilyn Robertson, whose husband is a lineman for California Water and Telephone Co.

HS Week Held Lots Of Firsts

By MARALEE MORRIS

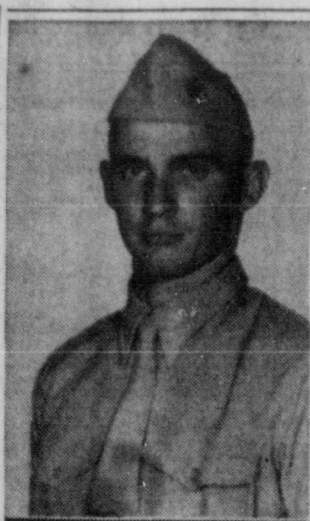

This was a week of "firsts" for PSHS, right from Monday through Friday.

On Monday, student council members Bill Ivey, Mary Lindenstein, Stan Cirata, Valerie Howe, Dagoberto Duran and Mike Hart, attended the first meeting of the newly formed "Desert Valley League" in Yucaipa. At the meeting, the new officers were introduced and sportsmanship rules were discussed.

Later in the week, our official "Victory" flag was hoisted for the first time. The flag, which is red with a white Indian head, will be flown at all times. When we win, a pennant representing the winning sport will be flown beneath it.

After the game Friday, the sophomore class presented its first soc-hop in the cafeteria. Those seen enjoying themselves were PSHS president and vice president Bill Ivey and Jo-Jo Rossin, president of the senior class, Denny Hicks and Julie Fisher, and still another president, Roger Burton of the Scholarship society, with his date Niki Pollack, Margaret Lindenstein, Georgia Morris, Ragna Kjellman, Sanford Gold, Rick Karp, Ken and Charles Baker, Donna Kokorudz and Rick Strause.

That's all the news from the Campus Corner for this week.

MICHAEL E. BUCKELEW, son of Mrs. Mary A. Clark of 1610 Via Entrada, was graduated this month from the Marine Corps Junior platoon leader course at Quantico, Va. He is a student at San Bernardino Valley College, and undergoes military training during the summer months.

Theft of Three Dresses Reported

PALM DESERT — Mary Ann Frost, operator of Southland Casuals dress shop at 73-731 Highway 111 here, reported to sheriff's deputies the theft of three dresses from her shop by four women shoplifters.

The loss was estimated at $90. Deputies said today the theft occurred the first day the shop was open for the season.

Fallout Plan To Be Told At CDO Meet

Aid Program Will Be Unveiled in Riverside Session

SACRAMENTO — Aid to local government in developing a program to protect citizens against radioactive fallout in the event of nuclear war will keynote a California Disaster Office meeting tomorrow at 1 p.m. at the Riverside County Courthouse, Riverside.

Harold G. Robinson, Director, said the program in radiological defense planning will be presented by his radiological safety staff, of which Charles T. Rainey is the chief. Serving as host will be Colonel Stan Drescher, civil defense director of Riverside County. Henry S. Eaton, CDO Coordinator for Region 1, will assist with the program.

"THE MEETING promises to be of great interest, for it will give local officials an opportunity to review their radiological program problems with qualified State specialists," Robinson said.

Invited to attend are city and county officials and civil defense directors from Riverside, Los Angeles, Ventura, Santa Barbara, San Luis Obispo, Kern, Orange, Mono, Inyo, San Bernardino, San Diego and Imperial Counties.

MAJOR ITEMS on the agenda include:

- Radiological defense operational concepts, local and state.
- Relation of the State radiological plan to the local plan.
- Availability of radiation detection equipment to local communities.
- Maximum permissible levels of exposure under emergency conditions.
- Shelter and remedial movement guidelines.
- Emergency radiological decontamination of people.

There will be a display of equipment and showing of the film, "Mission Fallout."

Fred Clatworthy Accepts New Chamber Post

Fred P. Clatworthy, who attended local schools and who is the son of Mrs. Mabel Clatworthy, 688 West Ramon Road, has resigned his position as Englewood Chamber of Commerce manager to accept the post as manager of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange County.

The association includes 27 chambers of commerce in an area from Los Angeles to San Diego.

Clatworthy is a graduate of the University of Southern California and the Southwestern Chamber of Commerce Institute at Dallas, Texas.

Linda Murray Named Delegate

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—Linda Murray, Desert Hot Springs Realtor, was today named as a delegate to the California Real Estate Association convention by DHS Realty Board President Elton C. Snow.

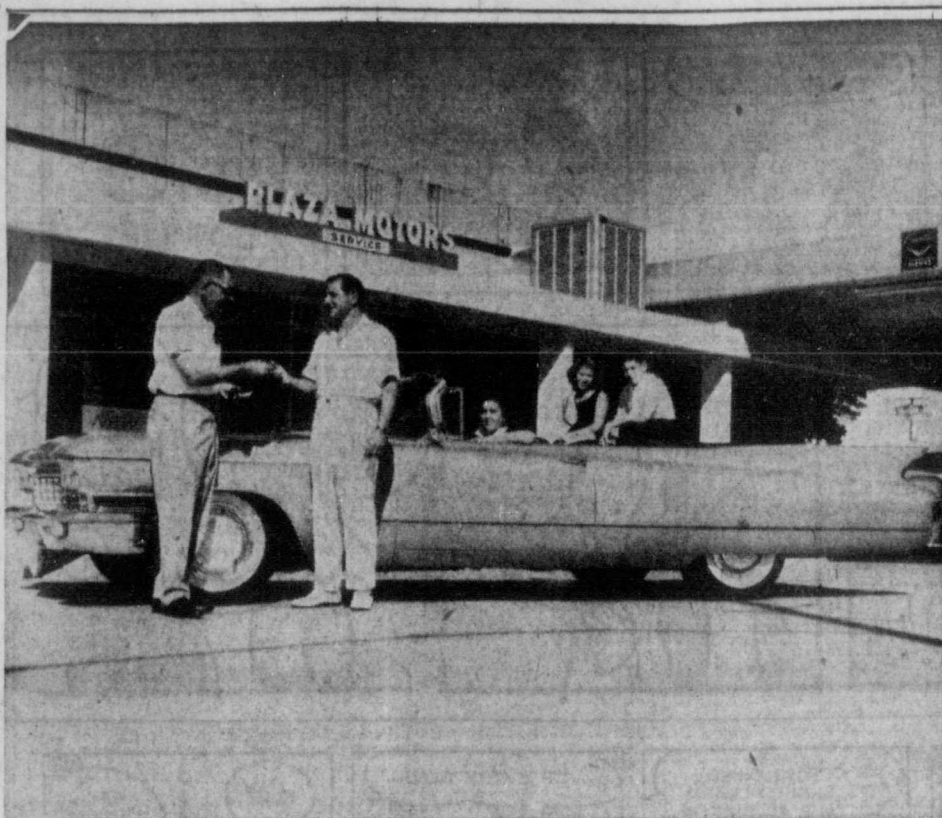

The convention opened yesterday at the Los Angeles Biltmore Hotel and continues through Wednesday.

Snow and James G. Pack, CREA director for this area, are also attending the conclave.

COMMODORE FINDS HIMSELF SHORT OF LISTENERS IN DRILL

BENSON, England — Air Commodore John Whitworth, addressing the remnants of a 300-corps of cadets after 60 minutes of drill inspection, said:

"I have a few words to say to you—to all of you who are left, anyway."

FIRST 1960 CADILLAC Convertible Coupe was delivered by Plaza Motors this week to Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Greenstone and family. General manager N. K. "Mac" MacDonald, left, hands keys to Mr. Greenstone, while Mrs. Greenstone, Lee Mitchell and Carol Lynn are also present.

Dear Abby... by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: I am a working mother. I am heart broken to find out that my 16-year-old daughter would pretend to go to school. Instead, she would return home with her boyfriend. Now they are forced into marriage because she is pregnant. What makes me sick is now that everybody knows about it, all my so-called friendly neighbors tell me that they could see what was going on all year. Don't you think they should have told me?

HEARTSICK MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Yes, in my opinion, the neighbors who considered themselves friends of yours should have told you long ago. I don't approve of petty tale-bearing or meddling gossip, but in this case, had someone informed you earlier, the whole unhappy situation might have been prevented.

DEAR ABBY: My sister has been supporting her husband for eight years now. Art claims he is writing a book and spends most of his time at the library. He quit his job three months after she married him and hasn't earned a dollar since.

My mother is miserable about the whole thing. My sister loves her husband and they have no children so we can't tell her that her place is at home. Still, we feel she is getting a raw deal. Her apartment is so shabby and poor. Should we have a talk with her, or Art? Or should we keep quiet as we have been doing for eight years?

SISTER

DEAR SISTER: Keep quiet, of course. "When ignorance is bliss, 'tis folly to be wise." Your sister's ignorance must be bliss, or she would have done something about it long ago. There is no problem here.

DEAR ABBY: My husband is retired and is home all day. So am I. Yesterday (at almost noon) the young married woman who has the apartment next to ours appeared at our door in nothing but her nightgown! She claimed she stepped out to get her morning paper and her door slammed shut and locked her out.

My poor husband was so embarrassed he couldn't look her in the face. He went for the janitor to let her in. There are two old maids living across the hall. Why didn't she rap on THEIR door? I am so nervous thinking this may happen again. I don't want to leave my apartment. What should be done about it?

NERVOUS

DEAR NERVOUS: If I were you I'd forget about it. Your locked-out neighbor was probably just as embarrassed as your husband. Don't fret about an incident that is not likely to occur again.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I live in the same town with his folks. They are very nice people and I like them. But every night when we sit down to eat supper, either his mother, or his father or one of his brothers or sisters will call him on the telephone. He spends almost every meal time away from the table talking on the telephone. When he gets back, half an hour later, his food is cold and everyone else has finished. I wouldn't care if these calls were important, but they are not. What do you suggest?

ANNOYED

DEAR ANNOYED: Your husband (and not you!) should tell his family to please refrain from telephoning him during dinner time. If they call anyway, he should ask them to please call back (or he can offer to call them) after dinner.

DEAR ABBY: To the 14-year-old girl who has gone steady for a year and all she got was a peck on the cheek. You are lucky! I am also 14 and my boyfriend is 15. We went steady for a year, too. Only I wouldn't settle for just a peck on the cheek. Now I will always regret not settling for what I was entitled to. I am going to have my baby in November. No, he didn't marry me. My Daddy had him locked up.

"ALSO 14"

CONFIDENTIAL TO ANNOYED SORORITY SISTERS: Pay her no mind. If she fell out of a three-story window she'd probably land on her feet!

CONFIDENTIAL TO 13-year-old boy: The current headlines disturb me, too. If you want to read a terrific book in which the hero is a teen-aged boy, for a change, get JOHNNY TREMAIN, by Forbes. Your public library has it.

What's your problem? For a personal reply write to ABBY, care of this paper. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

A researcher at Cornell University has discovered that young people who have frequent accidents tend to be poor thinkers, while older accident victims more often lack coordination and dexterity.
